

Comedy night

at the Swiss Embassy

Join us for a comedy night at the Swiss Embassy where you will be entertained by Julius Howe and James Alderson while enjoying Swiss wine and tasting unique cheeses from Switzerland and the United Kingdom.

Julius Howe

Julius Howe was born in London and got into comedy after realising he was spending most of his day making people laugh. Julius' brand of left-field and side splittingly funny comedy has been making a name for him at the best clubs across the UK. He was a finalist in South Coast Comedian of the Year Competition 2017 and his debut 2018 Camden Fringe show brought four star reviews. Drawing on his life experiences Julius delivers original and intelligent comedy with a touch of the surreal.

"Julius has some of the best jokes I have ever heard."

Vince Maple, Leader of Medway Labour Group

"Good strong jokes."

Otiz Cannelloni, Comedian

"A true hit."

North West End Review

James Alderson

James Alderson was voted "Best Comedy Act 2015" by the WOW247 Awards and was voted "Best Comedian 2014" by The Guide Awards, and 2017 just got better and better! James has established himself as one of the most booked MCs on the circuit too, now regularly appearing as MC or resident MC for over a dozen professional comedy clubs around the country, including being made resident compere for Just The Tonic!

He also regularly organise gigs abroad travelling to Cyprus, Spain, Egypt, Crete, Turkey and various corporates including performing in Iceland for WowAir, Switzerland for Nestle' and in New York at Christmas.

James also hosts the South Coast Comedian of the Year competition now in it's 6th year finding the brightest new comedy talent on the south coast!

"James sets the room alight like a pyromaniac in a fireworks shop!" Russell Kane

"James is one of the most original and fun MCs I've worked with!" Dane Baptiste
